CONTRACT

The conditions of usage of The Historic State Theater are governed by the Contract document.

LIABILITY

The Board shall require the Lessee to assume all liability for injury to individuals by reason of rental of venue and indemnify and hold harmless the Board from any loss or damage thereby.

CONDITIONS OF RENTING

Renting of The Historic State Theater is subject to the following conditions:

1. Renting will be made only to responsible and organized groups. An official representative of that group must sign all necessary documents.
2. Conditions of the rental are set forth in the Contract. The Contract as well as these supporting documents and any applicable Addendums, which are incorporated into the Contract, controls the conditions of renting the facility.
3. The Renter, prior to contract signing, must obtain any and all additional provisions, permissions, conditions and agreements to cover the use of copyrighted materials.
4. Payment in full is due at contract signing unless both parties have agreed to other arrangements. Following the event, a Final Invoice for any additional fees (unusual damages to facilities, additional services, supplies, hours, etc.) will be presented for payment.
5. Payment will only be refunded if The Historic State Theater receives written notification of the Renter's cancellation no later than thirty days prior to the scheduled usage date. If cancellation occurs after that date, The Historic State Theater shall keep the payment to cover expenses incurred or lost due to the forfeiture of the renting.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

The Contract should be reviewed thoroughly as well as its supporting documents and any applicable Addendums, which are encompassed by the Contract.
